TO: The Commission

WITHDRAWAL OF PETITION

The Wyoming Public Service Commission hereby withdraws its petition for authority to maintain current regulation of rates and market entry, executed on August 9, 1994, in the above captioned proceeding.

In support of this withdrawal, the Wyoming Public Service Commission refers to the "Wyoming Telecommunications Act of 1995", enacted into law on March 1, 1995, which makes comprehensive and fundamental changes to the regulation of certain telecommunications providers within the State of Wyoming. This act, under W.S. § 37-14-104, deregulates all "telecommunications services using radio spectrum or cellular technology" except for provisions concerning jurisdiction over contributions to a universal service fund and service quality. This language would include the provision of Commercial Mobile Radio Services (CMRS) addressed in this proceeding.

Accordingly, the Wyoming Public Service Commission respectfully requests the Commission accept this withdrawal of the Wyoming petition and for such other action as the Commission deems appropriate.
